AND

.....RESPONDENTS

ORDER:

The petitioner is the resident of Dayara Village. She lodged a private complaint on the file of the Court of the Judicial Magistrate of First Class, Medchal. The same was registered as Crime No.97 of 2000 by P.S.Keesara. In the said complaint, she alleged that respondents 4 to 6 herein, who are brothers of the petitioner's husband, Papireddy, are harassing her for dowry and that on 30.07.2000, the accused went to her house and took away Rs.17,000/- and valuable documents, necking the petitioner and her children out of the house. In this writ petition the grievance of the petitioner is that though the crime was registered on 04.09.2000, the Police have not completed the investigation.

The first respondent filed counter affidavit, inter alia, stating as under.

> It is submitted that the allegation that on the private complaint made by the petitioner before the J.F.C.M. Medchal through Cr.No.97/2000 dated 4-9-2000, was registered, but the police have not taken any action against them, is incorrect. In fact, in the said crime, all the accused persons have surrendered before J.F.C.M. Court, Medchal and they were granted bail by the said Hon'ble Court. It is further submitted that, investigation in the crime is almost completed and charge sheet is likely to be filed within a week. There is no truth in the averment of the petitioner that on 26-10-2000, she was resued and boarded in D.C.M. by Asst. Sub-Inspector of police along with two Constables.

Though counter affidavit is filed before this Court on 31.01.2001, no reply affidavit is filed.

Therefore, the writ petition is disposed of directing the first respondent to file the charge sheet immediately, within a period of one week from today, if not already filed. No costs.
